About the FDP:

Gyan Ganga Institute of Technology & Sciences, Jabalpur, in collaboration with the UGC–Malaviya Mission Teacher Training Centre (MMTTC), successfully organized an Eight-Day Faculty Development Programme on "National Education Policy (NEP) 2020: Orientation and Digitization" from 10–18 November 2025.

The programme was designed to enhance faculty understanding of the transformative vision of NEP 2020, focusing on learner-centric education, multidisciplinary learning, digital transformation, Indian Knowledge Systems, academic leadership, inclusivity, sustainability, governance, and skill development. The FDP brought together 265 faculty members representing more than 17 states across India, creating an enriching national platform for academic interaction, collaboration, and knowledge exchange.

The inaugural ceremony was graced by Prof. Pawan Kumar Sharma, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, Jai Narain Vyas University, Jodhpur, as Chief Guest, along with Prof. Rajesh Kumar Dubey, Director, UGC–MMTTC, and Dr. Rajneet Jain, Chairman, Gyan Ganga Group of Institutions. Their inspiring addresses emphasized the pivotal role of faculty in implementing NEP 2020 and building a future-ready higher education ecosystem.

Programme Highlights

During the eight-day FDP, eminent academicians, educationists, and academic leaders from premier universities across the country delivered expert sessions on key dimensions of NEP 2020. The programme covered a wide range of contemporary themes, including:

- Student Diversity and Inclusive Education
- Learner-Centric Pedagogy and Outcome-Based Assessment
- Indian Knowledge System
- Holistic and Multidisciplinary Education
- Faculty Development and Academic Leadership
- Skill Development and Employability

- Multilingualism and Inclusive Education
- Sustainable Development and NEP 2020
- Academic Governance and Institutional Leadership
- Power, Ethics and Politics in Higher Education
- Gender Sensitization and Inclusivity
- 21st Century Skills for Viksit Bharat 2047

Interactive discussions, case studies, reflective activities, quizzes, and experience-sharing sessions enabled participants to critically examine educational practices and explore innovative approaches aligned with the objectives of NEP 2020.

Distinguished Resource Persons

The FDP featured 16 eminent resource persons from prestigious institutions, including Central Universities, State Universities, and UGC–MMTTCs across India. Their expertise provided participants with valuable insights into contemporary higher education reforms, quality enhancement, leadership, pedagogy, and institutional transformation.

Experts represented institutions such as:

Major Outcomes of the FDP

The Faculty Development Programme significantly contributed to strengthening faculty competencies and institutional preparedness for implementing NEP 2020. The programme successfully:

Enhanced participants' understanding of the vision and implementation strategies of NEP 2020.

Promoted learner-centric, multidisciplinary, and outcome-based teaching practices.

Encouraged integration of Indian Knowledge Systems, ethics, sustainability, and inclusivity into higher education.

Strengthened academic leadership, governance, and institutional quality enhancement.

Fostered collaboration and networking among faculty members from institutions across India.

Motivated educators to adopt innovative pedagogical approaches, digital technologies, and experiential learning practices.

The programme concluded with a grand Valedictory Session attended by distinguished dignitaries, academic leaders, resource persons, and participants. The ceremony featured reflections on the academic journey, participant feedback, and appreciation of the collaborative efforts of UGC–MMTTC and GGITS in successfully organizing the national-level FDP.

Participants expressed high satisfaction with the quality of sessions, relevance of the topics, and opportunities for academic interaction. The programme concluded with a renewed commitment among educators to contribute towards the successful implementation of NEP 2020 and the vision of Viksit Bharat 2047.

Impact

The Faculty Development Programme emerged as a significant academic initiative, reinforcing GGITS's commitment to quality education, faculty empowerment, and continuous professional development. By bringing together leading academicians and faculty members from across the country, the programme fostered a collaborative learning ecosystem aligned with the goals of NEP 2020, Institutional Quality Enhancement, and Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

With 265 participants from more than 17 states, the FDP stands as a testament to GGITS's growing national academic outreach and its dedication to promoting excellence in higher education through meaningful collaborations with UGC–MMTTC.
